

ART FOR ART LOVERS

While Alan Crossley and his wife Constance were setting up their various works of art at the Peel County Museum and Art Gallery for tonight's opening, they had an unexpected audience. Above, Mr. Crossley hangs up one of his works, while below, Andrew Proczek, 11, of 28 Lesbury watches through an open gallery window. By young Andrew's eyes, one can almost tell he has an early liking for art. The Crossley exhibition will be at the Peel County gallery until April 22. Tonight at 8 p.m. there will be a wine and cheese meet-the-artists night.

(Daily Times Photos)